

*"Not tame and gentle bliss, but disaster,
heroically encountered, is man's true happy ending."
-Lewis Mumford*

ORSON WELLES'

Moby Dick Rehearsed

The Portland Public Library and PCA Great Performances present a book discussion group in conjunction with PCA's presentation of Orson Welles' Moby Dick Rehearsed, the only stage play ever written by legendary director and filmmaker Welles, on Wednesday, April 16, at 7:30pm at Merrill Auditorium.

Moby Dick Book Discussion Group Led by Dr. Michael Bachem

Session 1: "The History and Background to Moby Dick"
January 14, 2008, 10:00am–11:30am

Session 2: "Fishing for Meaning: Approaches to Reading Moby Dick"
February 11, 2008, 10:00am–11:30am

Session 3: "The Reverberations of Moby Dick"
March 10, 2008, 10:00am–11:30am

Registration Deadline extended to January 9th.
Call 871-1700 ext. 759 or e-mail
tiffany@portland.lib.me.us
for more information or to sign up.

Portland Public Library Rines Auditorium 5 Monument Square, Portland

Participants are eligible for $10 tickets to PCA presentation of Moby Dick Rehearsed.

ENRICHING OUR COMMUNITY, EXPANDING OUR WORLD.

For more activities related to Moby Dick Rehearsed, go to www.pcagreatperformances.org. Thank you!